

First Line Supervision and Leadership

Course Dates and Location

September 28-29, 2016

0800-1700

Johnson County Sheriff's Department
1091 Hospital Road Franklin, Indiana 46131

Instructor-Michael DeHart

(317) 403-8840

dehart6@comcast.net

and

Instructor-Chris Wuensch

(317) 223-4586

wuenschchris@yahoo.com

- This course is designed to develop the leader within you.
- Whether you are a new supervisor or an experienced one, the course will provide you with new paradigms and “tools” for your toolbox to lead.
- The course gives the student the opportunity to analyze their core beliefs, ethics and leadership styles.
- If you are looking to improve personally, professionally and ultimately have a greater understanding of supervision and leadership, than this course is for you.

The Course Will Cover:

Adult Learning Styles	Analyze the Student's Personal Characteristics	Supervision Principles
Blooms Taxonomy	Ethical Issues	Supervising Millennials
Emotional Intelligence	Team Building	Discuss the DISC

Meet our Instructors

Lieutenant Michael DeHart- is the Field Training Unit Coordinator for the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department. He has over 25 years of experience in policing. He is an Indiana Law Enforcement Board (ILETB) Master Instructor and a graduate of the FBINA. Lieutenant DeHart has a Master's degree in Criminal Justice and Business Management. He also serves as an adjunct criminal justice lecturer for Indiana Wesleyan University, in the Department of Social Sciences.

Field Training Officer Chris

Wuensch-serves the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department in the North District Bike Unit and also as a Field Trainer Officer. FTO Wuensch has over 14 years of experience as a police officer and has received numerous awards. Those awards include: ERB Rookie of the Year, Fire Police Sheriff Award: North District Officer of the Year, Medal of Courage Recipient. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Xavier University. FTO Wuensch is a certified instructor by the Indiana Law Enforcement Board (ILETB). He frequently instructs recruits as well new instructors.

Guiding Principles

Our purpose guides our organization and simply states why we do what we do; the very means why our organization even exists. Our mission drives us and describes how we are going to accomplish our purpose while our vision captures how our organization will change the world; it is our mission in action.

Purpose Statement

To improve the effectiveness of public safety organizations through the creation and dissemination of knowledge.

Mission Statement

To enrich the lives of public safety personnel through guidance and education.

Vision Statement

EMPOWERING LEADERS IN THE END!

Core Values

Faith-Family-Friends-Fraternity

About ELITE

As a non-profit organization, E.L.I.T.E. Public Safety Consulting, Inc.'s mission is simple, and that is to help individuals and organizations achieve their goals through access to highly experienced, motivated, and inspired professionals. To accomplish this, there are two main organizational objectives that must be met:

(1) To provide guidance to public safety organizations and personnel that will enhance organizational performance through effective leadership practices.

(2) To deliver high quality educational courses designed to inspire and empower public safety leaders to make a difference in their organizations

To Register for the course contact:

Michael DeHart at 317-403-8840 or
dehart6@comcast.net

Registration fee is $350 and includes: All handouts for classes, 16 hours of LETB credit, refreshments during course and certificate of training.

For more information about ELITE

Public Safety Consulting contact

President, Dr. Candace D. Ashby, at cashby154@aol.com or 317-902-3473